TREASURY BULLETIN

A detailed black and white illustration occupies the left side of the cover. It depicts a series of classical columns, possibly from the U.S. Treasury Building, receding into the distance. In the background, the Washington Monument stands tall against a clear blue sky. To the right of the monument, there's a cluster of trees and shrubs. The overall style is architectural and historical.

Summary of “Some Economic Aspects of the U.S. Health Care System”

by James E. Duggan

This report provides an economic perspective on selected aspects of the U.S. health care system. Three general topics are addressed: (a) The evolving structure of the medical care market toward increased competition, (b) consequences of economic behavior induced by incentives that originate in the medical care sector, and (c) the role of the Government in health care. The report complements a recent Treasury Department study, “Financing Health and Long-Term Care.”

Three major developments characterize the U.S. health care system over the past 45 years: A rapid diffusion of private health insurance (1945-60), a rapid increase in public health insurance (1965-75), and the emergence of competition in the medical care and health insurance markets (1975+). These developments reflect varying emphases on three objectives underlying the American system: Maintaining cost control, securing equal access to health care, and assuring a high degree of quality in the delivery of health services.

The three objectives create tensions that render their simultaneous satisfaction very difficult to achieve. Efforts at cost containment are motivated by developments such as rising employer health care costs and growing Federal and State expenditures on health care. At the same time, a large number of Americans lack adequate health insurance and many persons remain exposed to short- and long-term catastrophic health care expenses.

This report provides a perspective and poses questions and concerns about some of the health care problems currently confronting policymakers. The main points can be summarized under the three general topics addressed in the report.

The Evolving Structure of the Medical Care Sector

The medical care market is characterized by imperfect competition, imperfect information, third-party payers, and an unusual seller-purchaser relationship. Medical care services can be distinguished by the relative degree of information possessed by sellers and purchasers.

Moral hazard in the health insurance market arises because insurance lowers the apparent price the insured has to pay for additional or higher quality medical care, causing the consumption of medical care to be greater than if the full price were paid directly. The problem is more evident in health insurance than other forms of insurance due to the difficulty in objectively defining the state of illness and the consequent need to base insurance benefit payments on the amount of medical expenditure. Moral hazard has a quantitative dimension (too much medical care) and a qualitative dimension (too-high quality of care). The result is upward pressure on the price and quantity of health care.

The escalation of health care costs has particularly serious implications for Federal finance.

The medical care and medical insurance markets are becoming more competitive, facilitated by Federal initiatives in the application of antitrust laws in the physician services market and in the loosening of restrictions on prepaid health plans. Managed care systems are continuing to develop. These systems emphasize provider incentives more than do traditional fee-for-service plans, and they enhance the monitoring and measurement of treatment outcomes. As a consequence, the information market is improving. Because much of the change in the health care sector has occurred quite recently, the consequences have not yet been fully evaluated.

Consequences of Economic Behavior in the Medical Care Market

The escalation of health care costs has particularly serious implications for Federal finance. Health care expenditures account for about 15 percent of total Federal outlays. Medicare Part A expenditures are projected to rise dramatically as a percent of GNP over the next 40 years. Medicare Part B also is projected to grow faster than the economy and could eventually become the largest social insurance program. Medicaid expenses also are projected to grow as the population ages and the demand for long-term care rises.

The increasing relative importance of the U.S. health care sector is part of a general trend among industrialized nations. For 21 Organization for Economic Cooperation and

ECONOMIC POLICY

Development (OECD) countries, the health expenditure/gross domestic product share rose from 3.9 percent in 1960 to 7.5 percent in 1987. The growth in the proportion of GDP devoted to health care slowed significantly between the 1965-75 and 1975-87 time periods. During the earlier period, the share for 12 OECD countries was growing faster than in the United States; during the more recent period, the U.S. share grew faster than for most other countries. International comparisons suffer from severely inadequate data, particularly on health care treatment outcomes.

The public share of total health care expenditures increased significantly during the period 1960-75 for most OECD countries. Beginning around 1975, the public share stabilized in most countries, or even declined slightly. The OECD data suggest some common experiences in the behavior of health care expenditures across countries. The health care systems are quite different, however, and specific comparisons are extremely difficult to make.

Medical care price inflation has been an important factor in health care expenditure growth, in the United States and other countries. Real expenditure change (population and utilization) has grown historically, resulting in a widening real health care expenditure-real GNP gap. Health care expenditures are thus absorbing an increasing share of the Nation's resources. Most of the real expenditure change in the United States and other OECD countries has occurred in utilization growth.

All levels of government are involved in all aspects of health care to some extent, including financing, delivery, and regulation.

Private and public insurance programs have grown rapidly over the past 30 years. One consequence is that, because of moral hazard, the demand for health care has been larger than otherwise, thereby contributing to rising health care expenditures. Though agreement exists on the direction of the insurance effect on health care expenditures, much uncertainty surrounds its magnitude. Recent evidence suggests that the insurance effect on the demand for health care has been modest. Further research is needed to quantify the extent of the insurance effect on the provision of health care.

The tax subsidy to private health insurance reduces the price of insurance, thereby resulting in increased health care consumption. The value of the subsidy rises as taxable income increases.

Medical malpractice, the threat of malpractice suits, and malpractice insurance influence health care costs in several ways. Insurance operating costs, legal costs, and the practice of defensive medicine impart upward pressure on costs. Yet, a well-functioning malpractice system is desirable in protecting health care providers from risk and in ensuring appropriate care by deterring negligent behavior. The malpractice insurance market is quite complex, precluding simple prescriptions for reform.

Public and private sector efforts at cost containment have produced some success in limiting health care expenditure increases, though the effects may be temporary. For the public sector, regulation of suppliers (through the prospective payment system) temporarily reduced the provision of hospital services; for the private sector, evidence indicates that insurance copayments and prepaid health plans curtail utilization to some extent.

Approximately 85 percent of the U.S. population has some form of health insurance coverage. The remaining 15 percent lack insurance for a variety of reasons. For some persons, nonpurchase of insurance may be a rational decision. Disagreement exists over appropriate strategies for expanding health insurance coverage. Further research may help to quantify the relative importance of reasons why people lack insurance.

Most elderly lack private insurance coverage for long-term care. An essential difficulty is the lack of reliable definitions and measures of the need for long-term care. For some higher income persons, nonpurchase of long-term care insurance may be a rational decision.

Government's Role in Health Care

All levels of government are involved in all aspects of health care to some extent, including financing, delivery, and regulation. The Federal Government's role in financing health care is concentrated in Medicare, Medicaid, and tax expenditures for the purchase of private health insurance.

Most States have laws that mandate specific coverages for health insurance plans, and the number of such laws has increased significantly in recent years. Mandated benefits often include high-probability, low-cost events (e.g., dental care). For a given level of premium expenditure, therefore, it may not be possible to offer plans that both meet the mandates and provide catastrophic coverage.

Government health care policy unavoidably impacts the private market. An example is the interaction that arises from the tax exclusion of health insurance premiums and moral hazard in the health insurance market. The consequence is additional demand for health insurance and added pressure on health care costs.

Medicare's attempts to control costs through higher copayments may be offset by additional Medigap insurance. Also, Medigap insurance results in higher hospital and physician utilization, resulting in higher benefits that are not reflected in either Medigap or Medicare premiums.

The Medicare program has high front-end coverage (and a low deductible) but lacks the stop-loss features common to private health insurance plans.

In addressing access issues such as the number of uninsured, long-term care, and acute catastrophic care, careful attention must be given to objectives. It will be important to distinguish targeted groups and to further investigate the reasons some groups do not purchase private insurance.

The Government can play a significant role in providing research and information in order to reduce uncertainty in the health care sector. Examples include improved information on the characteristics of the uninsured and assistance in defining and forming risk pools. ◇

FINANCIAL OPERATIONS

FEDERAL FISCAL OPERATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Background

Section 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 (31 U.S.C. 3513a) requires the Secretary of the Treasury to prepare reports on the financial operations of the U.S. Government.

The first three Federal fiscal operations (FFO) tables are published quarterly and cover 5 years of data, estimates for 2 years, detail for 13 months, and fiscal year-to-date data. The tables are designed to provide a summary of data relating to Federal fiscal operations reported by Federal entities and disbursing officers, and daily reports from the Federal Reserve banks. These reports detail accounting transactions affecting receipts and outlays of the Federal Government and off-budget Federal entities, and their related effect on the assets and liabilities of the U.S. Government. Data used in the preparation of tables FFO-1, FFO-2, and FFO-3 is derived from the Monthly Treasury Statement of Receipts and Outlays of the United States Government.

Budget authority usually takes the form of "appropriations" which permit obligations to be incurred and payments to be made. Most appropriations for current operations are made available for obligation only during a specified fiscal year (annual appropriations). Some are for a specified longer period (multiple-year appropriations). Others, including most of those for construction, some for research, and many for trust funds, are made available for obligation until the amount appropriated has been expended or until the objectives have been attained (no-year appropriations).

Budget authority can be made available by Congress for obligations and disbursement during a fiscal year from a succeeding year's appropriations (advance funding). For many education programs, Congress provides forward funding--budget authority made available for obligation in one fiscal year for the financing of ongoing grant programs during the succeeding fiscal year. When advantageous to the Federal Government, an appropriation is provided by Congress that will become available 1 year or more beyond the fiscal year for which the appropriation act is passed (advance appropriations). Included as advance appropriations are appropriations related to multiyear budget requests.

When budget authority is made available by Congress for a specific period of time, any part not obligated during that period expires and cannot be used later. Congressional actions that extend the availability of unobligated amounts that have expired or would otherwise expire are known as reappropriations. The amounts involved are counted as new budget authority in the fiscal year of the legislation in which the reappropriation action is included, regardless of when the amounts were originally appropriated or when they would otherwise lapse.

Outlays.--Obligations generally are liquidated by the issuance of checks or the disbursement of cash; such payments are called outlays. In lieu of issuing checks, obligations also may be liquidated (and outlays recorded) by the accrual of interest on public issues of Treasury debt securities (including an increase in the redemption value of bonds outstanding); or by the issuance of bonds, debentures, notes, monetary credits, or electronic payments. Refunds of collections generally are treated as reductions of collections, rather than as outlays. However, payments for earned-income tax credits in excess of tax liabilities are treated as outlays rather than as a reduction in receipts. Outlays during a fiscal year may be for payment of obligations incurred in prior years or in the same year. Outlays, therefore, flow in part from unexpended balances of prior year budget authority and in part from budget authority provided for the year in which the money is spent. Total outlays include both budget and off-budget outlays and are stated net of offsetting collections.

Receipts.--Receipts reported in the tables are classified into the following major categories: (1) budget receipts and (2) offsetting collections. Budget receipts are collections from the public that result from the exercise of the Government's sovereign or governmental powers, excluding receipts offset against outlays. These collections, also called governmental receipts, consist mainly of tax receipts (including social insurance taxes), receipts from court fines, certain licenses, and deposits of earnings by the Federal Reserve System. Refunds of receipts are treated as deductions from gross receipts.

Offsetting collections are from other Government accounts or the public that are of a business-type or market-oriented nature. They are classified into two major categories: (1) offsetting collections credited to appropriations or fund accounts, and (2) offsetting receipts (i.e., amounts deposited in receipt accounts). Collections credited to appropriation or fund accounts normally can be used without appropriation action by Congress. These occur in two instances: (1) when authorized by law, amounts collected for materials or services are treated as reimbursements to appropriations and (2) in the three types of revolving funds (public enterprise, intragovernmental, and trust); collections are netted against spending, and outlays are reported as the net amount.

Offsetting receipts in receipt accounts cannot be used without being appropriated. They are subdivided into two categories: (1) proprietary receipts--these collections are from the public and they are offset against outlays by agency and by function, and (2) intragovernmental funds--these are payments into receipt accounts from governmental appropriation or fund accounts. They finance operations within and between Government agencies and are credited with collections from other Government accounts. The transactions may be intrabudgetary when the payment and receipt both occur within the budget or from receipts from off-budget Federal entities in those cases where payment is made by a Federal entity whose budget authority and outlays are excluded from the budget totals.

Intrabudgetary transactions are subdivided into three categories: (1) interfund transactions, where the payments are from one fund group (either Federal funds or trust funds) to a receipt account in the other fund group; (2) Federal interfund transactions, where the payments and receipts both occur within the Federal fund group; and (3) trust interfund transactions, where the payments and receipts both occur within the trust fund group.

Offsetting receipts are generally deducted from budget authority and outlays by function, by subfunction, or by agency. There are four types of receipts, however, that are deducted from budget totals as undistributed offsetting receipts. They are: (1) agencies' payments (including payments by off-budget Federal entities) as employers into employees retirement funds, (2) interest received by trust funds, (3) rents and royalties on the Outer Continental Shelf lands, and (4) other interest (i.e., interest collected on Outer Continental Shelf money in deposit funds when such money is transferred into the budget).

Off-budget Federal entities.--The Federal Government has used the unified budget concept as the foundation for its budgetary analysis and presentation since 1969. This concept calls for the budget to include all of the Government's fiscal transactions with the public. Starting in 1971, however, various laws have been enacted under which several Federal entities have been removed from the budget or created outside the budget. Other laws have moved certain off-budget Federal entities onto the budget. Under current law, the off-budget Federal entities consist of the two Social Security trust funds, Federal old-age and survivors insurance and Federal disability insurance.

The off-budget Federal entities are federally owned and controlled, but their transactions are excluded from the budget totals under provisions of law. When an entity is off-budget, its receipts, outlays, and surplus or deficit are not included in budget receipts, budget outlays, or the budget deficit; its budget authority is not included in the totals of budget authority for the budget; and its receipts, outlays, and surplus or deficit ordinarily are not subject to the targets set by the congressional budget resolution.

Nevertheless, the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (commonly known as the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings Act) included the off-budget surplus or deficit in calculating the deficit targets under that act and in calculating the excess deficit for purposes of that act. Partly because of this reason, attention has focused on the total receipts, outlays, and deficit of the Federal Government instead of the on-budget amounts alone.

Table FFO-1.--Summary of Fiscal Operations

This table summarizes the amount of total receipts, total outlays, total surplus or deficit, transactions in Federal securities and monetary assets, and transactions and balances in Treasury operating cash.

Table FFO-2.--On-budget and Off-budget Receipts by Source

Budget receipts are taxes and other collections from the public that result from the exercise of the Government's sovereign or governmental powers. The amounts in this table represent income taxes, social insurance taxes, net contributions for other insurance and retirement, excise taxes, estate and gift taxes, customs duties, and net miscellaneous receipts by source.

Table FFO-3.--On-budget and Off-budget Outlays by Agency

Congress [usually] provides budget authority which is [generally] in the form of appropriations, then Federal agencies obligate the Government funds to make outlays. The amounts in this table represent a breakdown of on-budget and off-budget outlays by agency.

Table FFO-4.--Summary of Internal Revenue Collections by States and Other Areas

This annual table provides data on internal revenue collections classified by States and other areas and by type of tax. The amounts reported are for collections made in a fiscal year beginning in October and ending the following September.

Fiscal year collections span several tax liability years because they consist of prepayments (e.g., estimated tax payments and taxes withheld by employers for individual income and Social Security taxes), of payments made with tax returns, and of subsequent payments made after tax returns are due or are filed (e.g., payments with delinquent returns or on delinquent accounts).

It is also important to note that these data do not necessarily reflect the Federal tax burden of individual States. The amounts are reported based on the primary filing address furnished by each taxpayer or reporting entity. For multistate corporations, this address may reflect only the State where such a corporation reported its taxes from a principal office rather than other States where income was earned or where individual income and social security taxes were withheld. In addition, an individual may reside in one State and work in another State.

FEDERAL FISCAL OPERATIONS

Budget Results for the Fourth Quarter, Fiscal 1990

Summary

The Federal budget deficit in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1990 totaled $57-3/4 billion, a deterioration from a deficit of $46-1/2 billion in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1989. For the whole of fiscal 1990, the deficit was almost $220-1/2 billion, or $67 billion wider than in fiscal 1989. Federal outlays during fiscal 1990 were up almost 9-1/2 percent from the year earlier, boosted by spending by the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC), higher interest payments on the national debt, and higher outlays for health and medicare. Receipts increased by a little more than 4 percent in fiscal 1990 from fiscal 1989.

Receipts in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1990 totaled $253-3/4 billion, up 5 percent from the year earlier fourth quarter. Outlays in the fourth quarter totaled $311-1/2 billion, up over 8 percent from a year earlier.

In terms of major functional category, outlays for national defense fell by 4 percent in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1990 from the year earlier and were off by almost 1-1/2 percent for full year fiscal 1990 from fiscal 1989. But that decline and decreases in a few other categories were more than offset by sharp double-digit increases in a number of other functional categories. The commerce and housing credit function, reflecting a surge in spending by the RTC, rose by one-third in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1990 from a year earlier, and full year fiscal 1990 spending was more than double that of fiscal 1989. Spending for the health and medicare functions during the final quarter of fiscal 1990 was up by 20 percent from the year earlier period and for fiscal 1990 as a whole was up almost 17 percent. Interest payments on the national debt in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1990 were up over 11 percent from the fourth quarter of the prior fiscal year and for the full year rose by 8-3/4 percent.

Third-Quarter Receipts

The following capsule analysis of budget receipts, by source, for the third quarter of fiscal 1990 supplements fiscal data earlier reported in the summer issue of the Treasury Bulletin. At the time of that issue's release, not enough data was available to analyze adequately collections for the quarter.

Individual income taxes.--Individual income tax receipts were $145.5 billion for the third quarter of fiscal 1990, up $1.7 billion from the same quarter of fiscal 1989. Withheld receipts were up $5.8 billion, and refunds were down $1.6 billion. These increases in net receipts were offset by a decrease in nonwithheld receipts of $5.6 billion, compared with the third quarter of fiscal 1989.

Corporate income taxes.--Net corporate receipts for the third quarter of fiscal 1990 totaled $33.5 billion. This was $3.7 billion lower than the third quarter of fiscal 1989. The drop in receipts reflects lower corporate profits. The $3.7 billion is comprised of $1.5 billion less in estimated payments and $1.9 billion less in final payments. In addition, refunds increased by $0.3 billion.

Employment taxes and contributions.--Employment taxes and contributions for the April-June 1990 quarter were $104.7 billion, an increase of $11 billion over the comparable period for the prior year. Two adjustments were made to the Social Security trust funds during the quarter. The Federal Insurance Contributions Act trust fund was adjusted to reflect actual withholding data from 1988. As a consequence, $1.4 billion was returned to the individual income tax account. This correction was comparable to a similar adjustment made the prior year. Based on tax returns from 1987, the Self-Employment Contributions Act (SECA) trust fund was increased by $0.1 billion, and the individual income tax account was reduced accordingly. The adjustment to the SECA trust fund was also about the same amount as an adjustment made in the comparable quarter of the previous year.

Unemployment insurance.--Unemployment insurance tax receipts for the April-June 1990 quarter were $9.8 billion, compared with $10.3 billion for the comparable prior year period. The decline in reported receipts for this source is due to the decrease in average State unemployment insurance rates for the 1990 tax year compared with 1989.

Contributions for other insurance and retirement.--Contributions for other retirement were $1.2 billion for the third quarter of fiscal 1990. Contributions for the third quarter of fiscal 1989 were also approximately $1.2 billion. The lack in growth in contributions is due to the continued displacement of employees covered under the civil service retirement system by those covered under the Federal employees retirement system.

Excise taxes.--Excise tax receipts for the April-June 1990 quarter were $10.5 billion, compared with $8.9 billion for the same quarter of fiscal 1989. The increase of $1.6 billion over the prior year level is the result of several factors. A large settlement of prior year windfall profits taxes and imposition of the new ozone depleting tax increased receipts compared with prior year levels. Refunds and credits were below the prior year level due to a change in the highway tax law. Year-to-year comparisons of excise tax receipts are affected by month-to-month differences in the processing and reporting of gross receipts and refunds. These reporting factors appear to have also increased the amount of excise reported for the April-June 1990 quarter compared with the comparable prior year period.

Estate and gift taxes.--Estate and gift tax receipts were $4.1 billion in the April-June quarter of fiscal 1990. This represents an increase of $1.9 billion over the previous quarter and an increase of $1.4 billion over the same quarter in the previous year. Most of the increase in receipts can be attributed to an unexpected increase in gift tax payments.

Customs duties.--Customs receipts net of refunds were $4 billion for the third quarter of fiscal 1990. This is a decrease of $0.2 billion from the same quarter in the prior year and is due to a decrease in imports.

Miscellaneous receipts.--Net miscellaneous receipts for the third quarter of fiscal 1990 were $6.2 billion. This represented an increase of $0.9 billion from the comparable prior year period. Deposits of Federal Reserve earnings increased by $0.8 billion, while net other miscellaneous receipts increased by $0.1 billion. ◇

FEDERAL OBLIGATIONS

"Obligations" are the basis on which the use of funds is controlled in the Federal Government. They are recorded at the point at which the Government makes a firm commitment to acquire goods or services and are the first of the four key events--order, delivery, payment, and consumption--which characterize the acquisition and use of resources. In general, they consist of orders placed, contracts awarded, services received, and similar transactions requiring the disbursement of money.

The obligational stage of Government transactions is a strategic point in gauging the impact of the Government's operations on the national economy, since it frequently represents for business firms the Government commitment which stimulates business investment, including inventory purchases and employment of labor. Disbursements may not occur for months after the Government places its order, but the order itself usually causes immediate pressure on the private economy.

Obligations are classified according to a uniform set of categories based upon the nature of the transaction without regard to its ultimate purpose. All payments for salaries and wages, for example, are reported as personnel compensation, whether the personal services are used in current operations or in the construction of capital items.

Federal agencies often do business with one another; in doing so, the "buying" agency records obligations, and the "performing" agency records reimbursements. In table FO-1, obligations incurred within the Government are distinguished from those incurred outside the Government. Table FO-2 shows only those incurred outside.

¹ For Federal budget presentation a concept of "net obligations incurred" is generally used. This concept eliminates transactions within the Government and revenue and reimbursements from the public which by statute may be used by Government agencies without appropriation action by the Congress. Summary figures on this basis follow. (Data are on the basis of Reports on Obligations presentation and therefore may differ somewhat from the Budget of the U.S. Government.)

GROSS FEDERAL OBLIGATIONS INCURRED OUTSIDE THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

As of June 30, 1990

ACCOUNT OF THE U.S. TREASURY

SOURCE AND AVAILABILITY OF THE BALANCE IN THE ACCOUNT OF THE U.S. TREASURY

The operating cash of the Treasury is maintained in Treasury's accounts with the Federal Reserve banks and branches and in tax and loan accounts. Major information sources include the Daily Balance Wire received from the Federal Reserve banks and branches, and electronic transfers through the Letter of Credit Payment, Fedline Payment, and Fedwire Deposit Systems. As the balances in the accounts at the Federal Reserve banks become depleted, they are restored by calling in (withdrawing) funds from thousands of financial institutions throughout the country authorized to maintain tax and loan accounts.

Under authority of Public Law 95-147, the Treasury implemented a program on Nov. 2, 1978, to invest a portion of its operating cash in obligations of depositaries maintaining tax and loan accounts. Under the Treasury tax and loan investment program, depositary financial institutions select the manner in which they will participate in the program. Depositaries that wish to retain funds deposited in their tax and loan accounts in interest-bearing obligations participate under the Note Option; depositaries that wish to remit the funds to the Treasury's account at Federal Reserve banks participate under the Remittance Option.

Deposits to tax and loan accounts occur in the normal course of business under a uniform procedure applicable to all financial institutions whereby customers of financial institutions deposit with them tax payments and funds for the purchase of Government securities. In most cases the transaction involves merely the transfer of funds from a customer's account to the tax and loan account in the same financial institution. On occasion, to the extent authorized by the Treasury, financial institutions are permitted to deposit in these accounts proceeds from subscriptions to public debt securities entered for their own account as well as for the accounts of their customers. Also, Treasury can direct the Federal Reserve banks to invest excess funds in these accounts directly from its account at the Federal Reserve banks.

The tax and loan system permits the Treasury to collect funds through financial institutions and to leave the funds in Note Option depositaries and in the financial communities in which they arise until such time as the Treasury needs the funds for its operations. In this way the Treasury is able to neutralize the effect of its fluctuating operations on Note Option financial institution reserves and the economy.

* Less than $500,000.

¹ Represents transfers from tax and loan note accounts, proceeds from sales of securities other than Government account series, and taxes.

² Represents checks paid, wire transfer payments, drawdowns on letters of credit, redemptions of securities other than Government account series, and investment (transfer) of excess funds out of this account to the tax and loan note accounts.

FEDERAL DEBT

INTRODUCTION

Treasury securities (i.e., public debt securities) comprise most of the Federal debt, with securities issued by other Federal agencies accounting for the remainder. In addition to the data on the Federal debt presented in the tables in this section of the quarterly Treasury Bulletin, the Treasury publishes detailed data on the public debt outstanding in the Monthly Statement of the Public Debt of the United States and on agency securities and the investments of Federal Government accounts in Federal securities in the Monthly Treasury Statement of Receipts and Outlays of the United States Government.

Table FD-1.--Summary of Federal Debt

The Federal debt outstanding is summarized as to holdings of public debt and agency securities by the public, which includes the Federal Reserve, and by Federal agencies, largely the social security and other Federal retirement trust funds. Greater detail on holdings of Federal securities by particular classes of investors is presented in the ownership tables, OFS-1 and OFS-2, of the Treasury Bulletin.

Table FD-2.--Interest-Bearing Public Debt

Interest-bearing marketable and nonmarketable Treasury securities are presented as to type of security. The difference between interest-bearing and total public debt securities reflects outstanding matured Treasury securities on which interest has ceased to accrue. The Federal Financing Bank (FFB) is under the supervision of the Treasury, and FFB securities shown in this table are held by a U.S. Government account.

Table FD-3.--Government Account Series

Nonmarketable Treasury securities held by U.S. Government accounts are summarized as to issues to particular funds within the Government. Many of the funds invest in par-value special series nonmarketables at statutorily determined interest rates, while others whose statutes do not prescribe an interest rate formula invest in market-based special Treasury securities whose terms mirror the terms of marketable Treasury securities.

Table FD-4.--Interest-Bearing Securities Issued by Government Agencies

Federal agency borrowing has been declining in recent years, in part because the Federal Financing Bank has been providing financing to other Federal agencies. This table does not cover Federal agency borrowing from the Treasury, which is presented in the Monthly Treasury Statement of Receipts and Outlays of the United States Government. The Government-sponsored entities, whose securities are presented in the memorandum section of table FD-4, are not agencies of the Federal Government, nor are their securities presented in table FD-4 guaranteed by the Federal Government.

Table FD-5.--Maturity Distribution and Average Length of Marketable Interest-Bearing Public Debt Held by Private Investors

The average maturity of the privately held marketable Treasury debt has increased gradually since it hit a trough of 2 years, 5 months, in December 1975. In March 1971, the Congress enacted a limited exception to the 4-1/4-percent interest rate ceiling on Treasury bonds that permitted the Treasury to offer securities maturing in more than 7 years at current market rates of interest for the first time since 1965. The exception to the 4-1/4-percent interest rate ceiling had been expanded since 1971 to authorize the Treasury to continue to issue long-term securities. The 4-1/4-percent interest rate ceiling on Treasury bonds was repealed on November 10, 1988. The volume of privately held Treasury marketable securities by maturity class reflects the remaining period to maturity of Treasury bills, notes, and bonds, and the average length comprises an average of remaining periods to maturity, weighted by the amount of each security held by private investors (i.e., excludes the Government accounts and Federal Reserve banks).

Table FD-6.--Debt Subject to Statutory Limitation

The statutory debt ceiling is compared with the outstanding debt subject to limit. The other debt category includes certain Federal debt that the Congress has designated by statute to be subject to the debt ceiling. The changes in non-interest-bearing debt shown in the last column reflect maturities of Treasury securities on nonbusiness days, such as weekends and holidays. In that event, Treasury securities are redeemed on the first business day following a non-business day.

Table FD-7.--Treasury Holdings of Securities Issued by Government Corporations and Other Agencies

Certain Federal agencies are authorized by statute to borrow from the Treasury, largely to finance direct loan programs. In addition, agencies such as the Bonneville Power Administration are authorized to borrow from the Treasury to finance capital projects. The Treasury finances such loans to the Federal agencies with issues of public debt securities.

TREASURY FINANCING OPERATIONS, JULY-SEPTEMBER 1990

JULY

Auction of 7-Year Notes

On July 3 the Treasury announced that it would auction $8,000 million of 7-year notes to refund $4,742 million of notes maturing July 15, 1990, and to raise about $3,250 million of new cash. The notes offered were Treasury Notes of Series F-1997, dated July 16, 1990, due July 15, 1997, with interest payable on January 15 and July 15 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-1/2 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, July 11, 1990, and totaled $47,015 million, of which $8,000 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.55 percent, price 99.741, up to 8.58 percent, price 99.586. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 100 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.57 percent, price 99.637. These totaled $524 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $7,476 million.

In addition to the $8,000 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $100 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $271 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

Auction of 2-Year Notes

On July 18 the Treasury announced that it would auction $11,500 million of 2-year notes to refund $9,493 million of notes maturing July 31, 1990, and to raise about $2,000 million of new cash. The notes offered were Treasury Notes of Series AC-1992, dated July 31, 1990, due July 31, 1992, with interest payable on January 31 and July 31 until maturity. An interest rate of 8 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, July 25, and totaled $40,487 million, of which $11,655 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.05 percent, price 99.909, up to 8.07 percent, price 99.873. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 50 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.07 percent, price 99.873. These totaled $1,582 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $10,073 million.

In addition to the $11,655 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $755 million was awarded to Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities. An additional $1,478 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

52-Week Bills

On July 20 tenders were invited for approximately $10,500 million of 364-day Treasury bills to be dated August 2, 1990, and to mature August 1, 1991. The issue was to refund $9,058 million of maturing 52-week bills and to raise about $1,450 million of new cash. Tenders were opened on July 26. They totaled $30,568 million, of which $10,544 million was accepted, including $720 million of noncompetitive tenders from the public and $1,926 million of the bills issued to Federal Reserve banks for themselves and as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities. An additional $124 million was issued to Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities for new cash. The average bank discount rate was 7.34 percent.

Cash Management Bills

On July 31 tenders were invited for approximately $4,000 million of 44-day bills to be issued August 7, 1990, representing an additional amount of bills dated March 22, 1990, maturing September 20, 1990. The issue was to raise new cash. Tenders were opened on August 2. They totaled $28,376 million, of which $4,030 million was accepted. The average bank discount rate was 7.60 percent.

AUGUST

August Quarterly Financing

On August 1 the Treasury announced that it would auction $11,500 million of 3-year notes of Series U-1993, $10,500 million of 10-year notes of Series C-2000, and $10,250 million of 30-year bonds of 2020 to refund $20,018 million of Treasury securities maturing August 15 and to raise about $12,225 million of new cash.

The notes of Series U-1993 were dated August 15, 1990, due August 15, 1993, with interest payable on February 15 and August 15 until maturity. An interest rate of 8 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, August 7, and totaled $27,514 million, of which $11,533 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.08 percent, price 99.791, up to 8.10 percent, price 99.738. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 94 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.10 percent, price 99.738. These totaled $973 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $10,560 million.

In addition to the $11,533 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $1,385 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $2,518 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

The notes of Series C-2000 were dated August 15, 1990, due August 15, 2000, with interest payable on February 15 and August 15 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-3/4 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, August 8, and totaled $16,737 million, of which $10,503 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.74 percent, price 100.066, up to 8.84 percent, price 99.411. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 66 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.77 percent, price 99.869. These totaled $560 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $9,943 million.

In addition to the $10,503 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $215 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $350 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

The notes of Series C-2000 may be held in STRIPS form. The minimum par amount required is $160,000.

The bonds of 2020 were dated August 15, 1990, due August 15, 2020, with interest payable on February 15 and August 15 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-3/4 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the bonds were received until 1 p.m. EDST, August 9, and totaled $25,955 million, of which $10,256 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.86 percent, price 98.851, up to 8.88 percent, price 98.644. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 13 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.87 percent, price 98.747. These totaled $505 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $9,751 million.

In addition to the $10,256 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $200 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

The bonds of 2020 may be held in STRIPS form. The minimum par amount required is $160,000.

Auction of 2-Year and 5-Year 2-Month Notes

On August 22 the Treasury announced that it would auction $11,500 million of 2-year notes of Series AD-1992 and $8,500 million of 5-year 2-month notes of Series M-1995 to refund $9,465 million of publicly held 2-year notes maturing August 31, 1990, and to raise about $10,525 million of new cash.

The notes of Series AD-1992 were dated August 31, 1990, due August 31, 1992, with interest payable on the last day of February and August until maturity. An interest rate of 8-1/8 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, August 28, and totaled $28,548 million, of which $11,557 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.18 percent, price 99.900, up to 8.20 percent, price 99.864. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 56 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.19 percent, price 99.882. These totaled $1,372 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $10,185 million.

In addition to the $11,557 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $665 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $1,131 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

The notes of Series M-1995 were dated September 4, 1990, due November 15, 1995, with interest payable on May 15 and November 15 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-1/2 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, August 29, and totaled $26,345 million, of which $8,561 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.56 percent, price 99.685, up to 8.58 percent, price 99.603. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 20 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.57 percent, price 99.644. These totaled $672 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $7,889 million.

In addition to the $8,561 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $415 million was awarded to Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities.

52-Week Bills

On August 17 tenders were invited for approximately $10,500 million of 364-day Treasury bills to be dated August 30, 1990, and to mature August 29, 1991. The issue was to refund $9,294 million of maturing 52-week bills and to raise about $1,200 million of new cash. Tenders were opened on August 23. They totaled $24,477 million, of which $10,520 million was accepted, including $611 million of noncompetitive tenders from the public and $2,990 million of the bills issued to Federal Reserve banks for themselves and as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities. An additional $90 million was issued to Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities for new cash. The average bank discount rate was 7.40 percent.

Cash Management Bills

On August 1 tenders were invited for approximately $10,000 million of 36-day bills to be issued August 15, 1990, representing an additional amount of bills dated March 22, 1990, maturing September 20, 1990. The issue was to raise new cash. Tenders were opened on August 9. They totaled $54,928 million, of which $10,088 million was accepted. The average bank discount rate was 7.79 percent.

TREASURY FINANCING OPERATIONS, JULY-SEPTEMBER 1990

Public Debt Limit

Public Law 101-350, enacted on August 9, 1990, temporarily increased the statutory debt limit to $3,195,000 million through October 2, 1990.

SEPTEMBER

Auction of 2-Year and 4-Year Notes

On September 19 the Treasury announced that it would auction $11,500 million of 2-year notes of Series AE-1992 and $8,250 million of 4-year notes of Series P-1994 to refund $17,132 million of Treasury notes maturing September 30 and to raise about $2,625 million of new cash.

The notes of Series AE-1992 were dated October 1, 1990, due September 30, 1992, with interest payable on March 31 and September 30 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-1/8 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

The statutory debt limit temporarily increased to $3,195,000 million through October 2, 1990.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, September 25, and totaled $33,781 million, of which $11,528 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.17 percent, price 99.919, up to 8.18 percent, price 99.901. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 45 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.18 percent, price 99.901. These totaled $810 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $9,469 million.

In addition to the $11,528 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $810 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $1,300 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

The notes of Series P-1994 were dated October 1, 1990, due September 30, 1994, with interest payable on March 31 and September 30 until maturity. An interest rate of 8-1/2 percent was set after the determination as to which tenders were accepted on a yield auction basis.

Tenders for the notes were received until 1 p.m. EDST, September 26, and totaled $28,352 million, of which $8,328 million was accepted at yields ranging from 8.52 percent, price 99.933, up to 8.53 percent, price 99.900. Tenders at the high yield were allotted 63 percent. Noncompetitive tenders were accepted in full at the average yield, 8.53 percent, price 99.900. These totaled $1,412 million. Competitive tenders accepted from private investors totaled $6,916 million.

In addition to the $8,328 million of tenders accepted in the auction process, $515 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities, and $532 million was accepted from Federal Reserve banks for their own account.

52-Week Bills

On September 14 tenders were invited for approximately $10,500 million of 364-day Treasury bills to be dated September 27, 1990, and to mature September 26, 1991. The issue was to refund $9,520 million of maturing 52-week bills and to raise about $975 million of new cash. Tenders were opened on September 20. They totaled $32,524 million, of which $10,520 million was accepted, including $576 million of noncompetitive tenders from the public and $2,240 million of the bills issued to Federal Reserve banks for themselves and as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities. An additional $90 million was issued to Federal Reserve banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities for new cash. The average bank discount rate was 7.25 percent. ◇

PUBLIC DEBT OPERATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Background

The Second Liberty Bond Act (31 U.S.C. 3101, et seq.) provides the Secretary of the Treasury with broad authority to borrow and to determine the terms and conditions of issue, conversion, maturity, payment, and interest rate on Treasury securities. Data in the "Public Debt Operations" section, which have been published in the Treasury Bulletin in some form since its inception in 1939, pertain only to marketable Treasury securities, currently bills, notes, and bonds. Treasury bills are discount securities that mature in 1 year or less, while Treasury notes and bonds have semiannual interest payments. New issues of Treasury notes mature in 2 to 10 years, and bonds mature in over 10 years from the issue date. Each marketable Treasury security is listed in the Monthly Statement of the Public Debt of the United States.

Table PDO-1--Maturity Schedule of Interest-Bearing Marketable Public Debt Securities Other than Regular Weekly and 52-Week Treasury Bills

All unmatured Treasury notes and bonds are listed in maturity order, beginning with the earliest maturity. A separate breakout is provided for the combined holdings of the Government accounts and Federal Reserve banks, so that the "All other investors" category includes all private holdings.

Table PDO-2---Offerings of Bills

The results of weekly auctions of 13- and 26-week bills and auctions of 52-week bills every fourth week are presented in table PDO-2. Treasury bills mature each Thursday. New issues of 13-week bills are reopenings of 26-week bills. The 26-week bill issued every fourth week to mature on the same Thursday as an existing 52-week bill is a reopening of the existing 52-week bill. The high, low, and average yields on accepted tenders and the dollar value of total bids is presented, along with the dollar value of awards on a competitive and a noncompetitive basis. The Treasury accepts noncompetitive tenders of up to $1 million in each auction of Treasury securities in order to assure that individuals and smaller institutions are able to participate in offerings of new marketable Treasury securities. Noncompetitive bids are awarded at the average yield on accepted competitive bids.

Table PDO-3--Public Offerings of Marketable Securities Other than Regular Weekly Treasury Bills

The results of auctions of marketable Treasury securities, other than weekly bills, are listed in the chronological order of the auction dates over approximately the most recent 2 years. This table includes notes and bonds presented in table PDO-1, 52-week bills in table PDO-2, and data for cash management bills. Treasury offers cash management bills from time to time to bridge temporary or seasonal declines in the cash balance. Cash management bill maturities generally coincide with the maturities of regular issues of Treasury bills.

Table PDO-4--Allotments by Investor Classes for Public Marketable Securities, Parts A and B

Data on allotments of marketable Treasury securities by investor class are presented in chronological order of the auction date for approximately the most recent 2 years. These data have appeared in the Treasury Bulletin since 1956. Tenders in each Treasury auction of marketable securities other than weekly auctions of 13- and 26-week bills are tallied by the Federal Reserve banks into investor classes described in the footnotes to the table.

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS AND NOTES

Series EE bonds, on sale since Jan. 1, 1980, are the only savings bonds currently sold. Series HH bonds are issued in exchange for series E and EE savings bonds and savings notes. Series A-D were sold from Mar. 1, 1935, through Apr. 30, 1941. Series E was on sale from May 1, 1941, through Dec. 31, 1979 (through June 1980 to payroll savers only). Series F and G were sold from May 1, 1941, through Apr. 30, 1952. Series H was sold from June 1, 1952, through Dec. 31, 1979. Series HH bonds were sold for cash from Jan. 1, 1980, through Oct. 31, 1982. Series J and K were sold from May 1, 1952, through Apr. 30, 1957.

U.S. savings notes were on sale May 1, 1967, through June 30, 1970. The notes were eligible for purchase by individuals with the simultaneous purchase of series E savings bonds. The principal terms and conditions for purchase and redemption and information on investment yields of savings notes appear in the Treasury Bulletins of March 1967 and June 1968; and the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for fiscal year 1974.

OWNERSHIP OF FEDERAL SECURITIES

INTRODUCTION

Federal securities presented in these tables comprise public debt securities issued by the Treasury and debt issued by other Federal agencies under special financing authorities. See the Federal debt (FD) series of tables for a more complete description of the Federal debt.

Table OFS-1.--Distribution of Federal Securities by Class of Investors and Type of Issues

Holdings of Treasury marketable and nonmarketable securities and of debt issued by other Federal agencies are presented for Government accounts, the Federal Reserve banks, and private investors. Government account holdings largely reflect investment by the social security and Federal retirement trust funds. The Federal Reserve banks acquire Treasury securities in the market as a means of executing monetary policy.

Table OFS-2.--Estimated Ownership of Public Debt Securities Held by Private Investors

Privately held Treasury securities are those held by investors other than the Government accounts and Federal Reserve banks. Treasury obtains information on private holdings from a variety of sources, such as data gathered by the Federal financial institution regulatory agencies. State and local holdings and foreign holdings include special issues of nonmarketable securities to municipal entities and foreign official accounts, as well as municipal and foreign official and private holdings of marketable Treasury securities. Data on foreign holdings of marketable Treasury securities are presented in the capital movements tables in the Treasury Bulletin. See the footnotes for descriptions of the investor categories.

MARKET YIELDS

INTRODUCTION

The tables and charts in this section present yields on Treasury marketable securities and compare long-term Treasury market yields with yields on long-term corporate and municipal securities.

Table MY-1.--Treasury Market Bid Yields at Constant Maturities: Bills, Notes, and Bonds

The Treasury yield curve, presented in the chart that accompanies table MY-1, is based on current market bid quotations on the most actively traded Treasury securities as of 3:30 p.m. each business day. The Treasury obtains quotations from the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which composites quotations provided by five primary dealers. This yield curve reflects yields based on semiannual interest payments and is read at constant maturity points to develop a consistent data series. Yields on Treasury bills, which are discount securities, are the coupon equivalent yields of bank discount rates at which Treasury bills trade in the market. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System also publishes the Treasury constant maturity data series in its weekly H.15 press release.

Table MY-2.--Average Yields of Long-Term Treasury, Corporate, and Municipal Bonds

The long-term Treasury rate is the 30-year constant maturity rate presented in table MY-1. The corporate and municipal bond series are developed by the Treasury, using reoffering yields on new long-term securities rated Aa by Moody's Investors Service. See the footnotes for further explanation.

FEDERAL AGENCIES' FINANCIAL REPORTS

INTRODUCTION

Section 114 of the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 (31 U.S.C. 3513a) requires the Secretary of the Treasury to prepare reports on the financial operations of the U.S. Government and provides that each executive agency must furnish the Secretary of the Treasury such reports and information relating to the agency's financial condition and operations as the Secretary may require. The provisions do not apply to the legislative and judicial branches of the Federal Government; however, these entities are encouraged to submit the prescribed reports so the Secretary of the Treasury can prepare comprehensive reports on all the financial activities of the U.S. Government.

The Treasury Financial Manual (I TFM 2-4100) sets the criteria for the submission of annual and quarterly financial reports in accordance with the Reporting Entities Listing (Bulletin No. 88-11). Reports are provided for six fund types: Revolving funds, trust revolving funds, 15 major trust funds, all other trust funds, all other activity combined, and consolidated reports of an organizational unit. The financial transactions supporting the required reports are to be accounted for on the accrual basis. The Report on Operations can be submitted on a cash basis under certain circumstances (see I TFM 2-4180.20). Reports are to be prepared from a budgeting and accounting system which contains an integrated data base that is part of the agency's integrated financial management system as required by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-127.

The required reports should include all assets, liabilities, and equities relating to all programs and activities under control of the reporting entity, except for the assets of disbursing officers, which are reported by the Treasury. Reports should include transfer appropriation accounts from other agencies, foreign currencies, operations conducted in the territories or overseas, and any monetary assets or property received, spent, or otherwise accounted for by the reporting entity. Amounts are reported to the dollar.

Requirements provide that Federal agencies submit to Treasury four financial reports supplemented by three supporting reports. These reports are: Report on Financial Position (SF 220), Report on Operations (SF 221), Report on Cash Flow (SF 222), and Report on Reconciliation (SF 223). The three supporting reports are: Direct and Guaranteed Loans Reported by Agency and Program Due from the Public (SF 220-8), Report on Accounts and Loans Receivable Due from the Public (SF 220-9), and Additional Financial Information (SF 220-1). The report on Direct and Guaranteed Loans is submitted to Treasury quarterly, and annually for publication in the Treasury Bulletin. The Report on Accounts and Loans Receivable Due from the Public is submitted quarterly on a selected basis, and by all entities annually. Information captured in the SF 220-8 is shown in the following table:

Table FA-1--Direct and Guaranteed Loans

This report reflects the direct loans and guaranteed loans to the public through the Federal Credit Program to support credit activities. Actual control of credit program levels remains with authorizing legislation and appropriations acts. The report on Direct and Guaranteed Loans also provides the Federal Reserve Board information to monitor the flow of funds. An accompanying chart depicts direct loans and guaranteed loans for the third quarter of fiscal 1990.

INTERNATIONAL STATISTICS

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL STATISTICS

The tables in this section are designed to provide data on U.S. reserve assets and liabilities and other statistics related to the U.S. balance of payments and international financial position.

Table IFS-1 shows the reserve assets of the United States, including its gold stock, special drawing rights held in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, holdings of convertible foreign currencies, and reserve position in the International Monetary Fund.

Table IFS-2 brings together statistics on liabilities to foreign official institutions, and selected liabilities to all other foreigners, which are used in the U.S. balance of payments statistics.

Table IFS-3 shows U.S. Treasury nonmarketable bonds and notes issued to official institutions and other residents of foreign countries.

Table IFS-4 presents a measure of the general foreign exchange value of the U.S. dollar.

¹ Beginning July 1974, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) adopted a technique for valuing the special drawing right (SDR) based on a weighted average of exchange rates for the currencies of selected member countries. The U.S. SDR holdings and reserve position in the IMF are also valued on this basis beginning July 1974.

² Treasury values its gold stock at $42,222 per fine troy ounce and pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 5117(b) issues gold certificates to the Federal Reserve at the same rate against all gold held.

³ Includes allocations of SDRs in the Special Drawing Account in the International Monetary Fund, plus or minus transactions in SDRs.

⁵ The United States has the right to purchase foreign currencies equivalent to its reserve position in the Fund automatically if needed. Under appropriate conditions the United States could purchase additional amounts related to the U.S. quota.

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL STATISTICS

These indices are presented to provide measures of the general foreign exchange value of the dollar that are broader than those provided by single exchange rate levels. They do not purport to represent a guide to measuring the impact of exchange rate levels on U.S. international transactions. The indices are computed as geometric averages of individual currency levels with weights derived from the share of each country's trade with the United States during 1982-83.

CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

INTRODUCTION

Background

Data relating to capital movements between the United States and foreign countries have been collected in some form since 1935. Reports are filed with district Federal Reserve banks by commercial banks, other depository institutions, bank holding companies, securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking enterprises in the United States. Statistics on the principal types of data by country or geographical area are then consolidated and are published in the Treasury Bulletin.

The reporting forms and instructions¹ used in the Treasury International Capital (TIC) Reporting System have been revised a number of times to meet changing conditions and to increase the usefulness of the published statistics. The most recent, general revision of the report forms became effective with the banking reports as of April 30, 1978, and with the nonbanking reports as of December 31, 1978. Revised forms and instructions are developed with the cooperation of other Government agencies and the Federal Reserve System and in consultations with representatives of banks, securities firms, and nonbanking enterprises.

Basic Definitions

The term "foreigner" as used in the Treasury reports covers all institutions and individuals domiciled outside the United States, including U.S. citizens domiciled abroad, and the foreign branches, subsidiaries, and other affiliates abroad of U.S. banks and business concerns; the central governments, central banks, and other official institutions of foreign countries, wherever located; and international and regional organizations, wherever located. The term "foreigner" also includes persons in the United States to the extent that they are known by reporting institutions to be acting on behalf of foreigners.

In general, data are reported opposite the foreign country or geographical area in which the foreigner is domiciled, as shown on the records of reporting institutions. For a number of reasons, the geographical breakdown of the reported data may not in all cases reflect the ultimate ownership of the assets. Reporting institutions are not expected to go beyond the addresses shown on their records, and so may not be aware of the country of domicile of the ultimate beneficiary. Furthermore, U.S. liabilities arising from deposits of dollars with foreign banks are reported in the Treasury statistics as liabilities to foreign banks, whereas the liability of the foreign bank receiving the deposit may be to foreign official institutions or to residents of another country.

Data pertaining to branches or agencies of foreign official institutions are reported opposite the country to which the official institution belongs. Data pertaining to international and regional organizations are reported opposite the appropriate international or regional classification except for the Bank for International Settlements, which is included in the classification "Other Europe."

Reporting Coverage

Reports are required from banks, other depository institutions, bank holding companies, International Banking Facilities (IBFs), securities brokers and dealers, and nonbanking enterprises in the United States, including the branches, agencies, subsidiaries, and other affiliates in the United States of foreign banking and nonbanking firms. Entities that have reportable liabilities, claims, or securities transactions below specified exemption levels are exempt from reporting.

Banks, other depository institutions, and some brokers and dealers file monthly reports covering their dollar liabilities to, and dollar claims on, foreigners in a number of countries. Twice a year, as of June 30 and December 31, they also report the same liabilities and claims items with respect to foreigners in countries not shown separately on the monthly reports. Quarterly reports are filed with respect to liabilities and claims denominated in foreign currencies vis-a-vis foreigners. Effective January 31, 1984, the specified exemption level applicable to the monthly and quarterly banking reports was raised from $10 million to $15 million. There is no separate exemption level for the semiannual reports.

Banks, other depository institutions, securities brokers and dealers, and other enterprises report monthly their transactions in long-term securities with foreigners. The applicable exemption level is $500,000 with respect to the grand total of purchases and to the grand total of sales during the month covered by the report.

Quarterly reports are filed by exporters, importers, industrial and commercial concerns, financial institutions other than banks, other depository institutions, brokers, and other nonbanking enterprises if their liabilities to, or claims on, unaffiliated foreigners at quarterend exceed specified exemption levels. Effective March 31, 1982, this exemption level was set at $10 million, up from $2 million. Nonbanking enterprises also report for each monthend their U.S. dollar-denominated deposit and certificates of deposit claims of $10 million or more on banks abroad.

Description of Statistics

Section I presents data on liabilities to foreigners reported by banks, other depository institutions, brokers, and dealers in the United States. Beginning April 1978, the following major changes were made in the reporting coverage: Amounts due to banks' own foreign offices are reported separately; a previous distinction between short-term and long-term liabilities was eliminated; a separation was provided of the liabilities of the respondents themselves from their custody liabilities to foreigners; and foreign currency liabilities are only available quarterly. Also, beginning April 1978, the data on liabilities were made more complete by extending to securities brokers and dealers the requirement to report certain of their own liabilities and all of their custody liabilities to foreigners. Effective as of January 31, 1985, savings and loan associations and other thrift institutions began to file the TIC banking forms. Previously they had reported on TIC forms for nonbanking enterprises.

Section II presents the claims on foreigners reported by banks, other depository institutions, and brokers and dealers in the United States. Beginning with data reported as of the end of April 1978, a distinction was made between banks' claims held for their own account and claims held for their domestic customers. The former are available in a monthly series whereas the latter data are collected on a quarterly basis only. Also, the distinction in reporting of long-term and short-term components of banks' claims was discontinued. Maturity data began to be collected quarterly on a time remaining to maturity basis as opposed to the historic original maturity classification. Foreign currency claims are also collected on a quarterly basis only. Beginning March 1981, this claims coverage ¹Copies of the reporting forms and instructions may be obtained from the Office of Data Management, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Economic Policy, Department of the Treasury, Washington, D.C. 20220, or from district Federal Reserve banks.

was extended to certain items in the hands of brokers and dealers in the United States. See notes to section I above concerning the reporting of thrift institutions.

Another important change in the claims reporting, beginning with new quarterly data as of June 30, 1978, was the adoption of a broadened concept of "foreign public borrower," which replaced the previous category of "foreign official institution" to produce more meaningful information on lending to the public sector of foreign countries. The term "foreign public borrower" encompasses central governments and departments of central governments of foreign countries and of their possessions; foreign central banks, stabilization funds, and exchange authorities; corporations and other agencies of central governments, including development banks, development institutions, and other agencies which are majority-owned by the central government or its departments; State, provincial, and local governments of foreign countries and their departments and agencies; and any international or regional organization or subordinate or affiliated agency thereof, created by treaty or convention between sovereign states.

Section III includes supplementary statistics on U.S. banks' liabilities to, and claims on, foreigners. The supplementary data on banks' loans and credits to nonbank foreigners combine selected information from the TIC reports with data from the monthly Federal Reserve 2502 reports submitted for major foreign branches of U.S. banks. Other supplementary data on U.S. banks' dollar liabilities to, and banks' own dollar claims on, countries not regularly reported separately are available semiannually in the June and December issues of the Treasury Bulletin.

Section IV shows the liabilities to, and claims on, unaffiliated foreigners by exporters, importers, industrial and commercial concerns; financial institutions other than banks, other depository institutions, and brokers; and other nonbanking enterprises in the United States. The data exclude the intercompany accounts of nonbanking enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies. (Such transactions are reported by business enterprises to the Department of Commerce on its direct investment forms.) The data also exclude claims held through banks in the United States. Beginning with data reported as of December 31, 1978, financial liabilities and claims of reporting enterprises are distinct from their commercial liabilities and claims; and items are collected on a time remaining to maturity basis instead of the original maturity basis used previously.

Section V contains data on transactions in all types of long-term domestic and foreign securities by foreigners as reported by banks, brokers, and other entities in the United States (except nonmarketable U.S. Treasury notes, foreign series; and nonmarketable U.S. Treasury bonds and notes, foreign currency series, which are shown in the "International Financial Statistics" section, table IFS-3). The data cover new issues of securities, transactions in outstanding issues, and redemptions of securities. They include transactions executed in the United States for the account of foreigners, and transactions executed abroad for the account of reporting institutions and their domestic customers. The data include some transactions which are classified as direct investments in the balance of payments accounts.

The geographical breakdown of the data on securities transactions shows the country of domicile of the foreign buyers and sellers of the securities; in the case of outstanding issues, this may differ from the country of the original issuer. The gross figures contain some offsetting transactions between foreigners. The net figures for total transactions represent transactions by foreigners with U.S. residents; but the net figures for transactions of individual countries and areas may include some transactions between foreigners of different countries.

The data published in these sections do not cover all types of reported capital movements between the United States and foreign countries. The principal exclusions are the intercompany capital transactions of nonbanking business enterprises in the United States with their own branches and subsidiaries abroad or with their foreign parent companies, and capital transactions of the U.S. Government. Consolidated data on all types of international capital transactions are published by the Department of Commerce in its regular reports on the U.S. balance of payments.

FOREIGN CURRENCY POSITIONS

INTRODUCTION

Background

Data have been collected since 1974 on the foreign currency positions of banks and nonbanking firms in the United States, and on those of foreign branches, majority-owned foreign partnerships, and majority-owned foreign subsidiaries of U.S. banks and nonbanking firms. Reports cover five major foreign exchange market currencies and U.S. dollars held abroad. Reporting has been required pursuant to title II of Public Law 93-110, an amendment to the Par Value Modification Act of September 21, 1973, and implementing Treasury regulations. Statistics on the positions have been published since March 1977 beginning with data for December 1975.

The report forms and instructions used in the collection of bank data were revised effective with reports as of March 16, 1983, for the weekly reports. The most recent revision of the nonbank foreign currency forms (see below) became effective as of the last business day of March 1983.

Common Definitions and Concepts

The term "United States" means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Midway Island, the Virgin Islands, and Wake Island. The term "foreign" means locations other than the "United States." The term "worldwide" is used to describe the sum of "United States" and "foreign" data.

Data for the United States include amounts reported by sole proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations in the United States including the U.S. branches and subsidiaries of foreign nonbanking concerns, in the case of "nonbanking firms' positions," and the agencies, branches, and subsidiaries located in the United States of foreign banks and banking institutions, in the case of the weekly "bank positions."

Data for "foreign branches" and "abroad" include amounts reported by the branches, majority-owned partnerships, and majority-owned subsidiaries of U.S. banking and nonbanking concerns. In general, these data do not reflect the positions of foreign parents or foreign parents' subsidiaries located abroad except through inter-company accounts. The data include the foreign subsidiaries of a few foreign-owned U.S.-based corporations.

Assets, liabilities, and foreign exchange contract data are reported on the basis of time remaining to maturity as of the date of the report, regardless of the original maturity of the instrument involved. "Spot" means due for receipt or delivery within 2 business days from the date of the report. "Short-term" means maturing in 1 year or less from the date of the report.

"Majority-owned foreign partnerships" are those organized under the laws of a foreign country in which one or more nonbanking concerns or nonprofit institutions in the United States, directly or indirectly, own more than 50 percent profit interest. "Majority-owned foreign subsidiaries" are foreign corporations in which one or more nonbanking business concerns or nonprofit institutions located in the United States, directly or indirectly, own stock with more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, or more than 50 percent of the total value of all classes of stock.

Reporting Threshold

The exemption level applicable to banks and banking institutions was $10 million equivalent through January 1982, when it was raised to $100 million. The exemption level applicable to nonbanking business concerns and nonprofit institutions was $1 million equivalent on all nonbank forms from March 1975 through November 1976. It was raised to $2 million equivalent on the monthly reports of positions held in the United States from November 1976 through September 1978. The exemption level was raised to $3 million on foreign subsidiary positions on June 30, 1977, and for positions held in the United States on September 30, 1978. The exemption level for nonbanking firms was raised to $100 million on positions in the United States in January 1982 and on foreign branch and subsidiaries positions in March 1982.

Firms must report their entire foreign currency position in a specified foreign currency if a specified U.S. dollar equivalent value is reached in any category of assets, liabilities, exchange contracts bought and sold, or the net position in the currency. In general, exemption levels are applied to the entire firm. In reports on their foreign branches, majority-owned foreign partnerships, and majority-owned foreign subsidiaries, U.S. banks and nonbanks are required to report the U.S. dollar-denominated assets, liabilities, exchange contracts bought and sold, and net positions of those branches, partnerships, and subsidiaries with reportable positions in the specified foreign currencies.

Description of Statistics

Data collected on the Treasury foreign currency forms are published in the Treasury Bulletin in seven sections. The first section presents a summary of worldwide net positions in all of the currencies reported. Sections II through VI each present data on a specified foreign currency. Section VII presents the U.S. dollar positions of the foreign branches and subsidiaries of U.S. firms which are required to report in one or more of the specified foreign currencies.

EXCHANGE STABILIZATION FUND

INTRODUCTION

Background

The Exchange Stabilization Fund (ESF) was established under the Gold Reserve Act of January 30, 1934 (31 U.S.C. 822a). This act authorized the establishment in the Department of the Treasury of a stabilization fund to be operated under the exclusive control of the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, for the purpose of stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar. Subsequent amendment of the Gold Reserve Act modified the original purpose somewhat to reflect termination of the fixed exchange rate system.

The resources of the fund consist of dollar balances, partly invested in U.S. Government securities, special drawing rights (SDRs), and balances of foreign currencies.

The principal sources of income or losses for the ESF have been profits or losses on holdings of and transactions in SDRs and foreign exchange, and the interest earned on assets.

Definitions

Special drawing rights.--International assets created by the International Monetary Fund (IMF). They serve to increase international liquidity and provide additional international reserves, and may be purchased and sold among eligible holders through the IMF.

SDR allocations.--The counterpart of SDRs issued by the IMF based on members' quota in the IMF. Although shown in ESF statements as liabilities, they must be redeemed by the ESF only in the event of liquidation of, or U.S. withdrawal from, the SDR Department of the IMF or cancellation of SDRs.

SDR certificates.--Issued to the Federal Reserve System against SDRs when SDRs are "monetized" and the proceeds of the monetization are deposited in an ESF account at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Description of Tables

Table ESF-1 presents the assets, liabilities, and capital of the ESF. Data are presented in U.S. dollars or U.S. dollar equivalents based on current exchange rates computed according to the accrual method of accounting. The capital account represents the original capital appropriated to the ESF by Congress of $2 billion, less a subsequent transfer of $1.8 billion to pay for the initial U.S. quota subscription to the IMF. Subsequent gains and losses since inception are reflected in the cumulative net income (loss) account.

Table ESF-2 presents the results of operations by quarter. Data are presented in U.S. dollars or U.S. dollar equivalents computed according to the accrual method of accounting. The "Profit (loss) on foreign exchange" includes realized profits (losses) on sales of foreign currencies as well as revaluation gains (losses) on currencies held. "Adjustment for change in valuation of SDR holdings and allocations" reflects the net gain (loss) on revaluation of SDR holdings and allocations for the quarter.

² Excludes foreign exchange transactions for future and spot delivery.

³ A non-interest-bearing liability to the U.S. Treasury resulting from the transfer to the Exchange Stabilization Fund of foreign currencies drawn from the IMF by the United States.

Note.--Annual balance sheets for fiscal years 1934 through 1940 appear in the 1940 Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury and those for succeeding years appear in subsequent reports through 1980. Quarterly balance sheets beginning with Dec. 31, 1938, have been published in the Treasury Bulletin. Data from inception to Sept. 30, 1978, may be found on the statements published in the January 1979 Treasury Bulletin.

U.S. CURRENCY AND COIN OUTSTANDING AND IN CIRCULATION

INTRODUCTION

Purpose and Scope

The U.S. Currency and Coin Outstanding and in Circulation Statement is prepared to inform the public of the face value of currency and coin which are used as a medium of exchange and the total thereof, as of the end of a given accounting month.

The statement defines the total amount of currency and coin outstanding and the portion of which is deemed to be in circulation. Although it still includes some old and current rare issues of coin and currency which do not circulate or may do so to a limited extent, Treasury policy is to continue their inclusion in the statement since such issues were originally intended for general circulation. The statement also provides a brief description of the various issues of U.S. paper money and further presents a comparative amount of money circulated in relation to population.

History

Statements of currency and coin outstanding and in circulation have been published by the Department of the Treasury since 1888. These statements were originally prepared monthly by the Division of Loans and Currency, which was then under the Office of the Secretary of the Treasury but later became part of the Public Debt Service (currently known as the Bureau of the Public Debt) in 1929. The statement was published with the title "Circulation Statement of United States Money" from 1923 through December 31, 1965. Concurrently, from December 31, 1919, to September 30, 1951, the Office of the U.S. Treasurer published a statement entitled "Monthly Statement—Paper Currency of Each Denomination Outstanding." Two months after the Office of the U.S. Treasurer assumed publication of the "Circulation Statement of United States Money," a revision was made to the statement to include denomination detail of the currency in circulation. Publication of the "Monthly Statement—Paper Currency of Each Denomination Outstanding" was discontinued, and the revised version which combines information from both statements became known as the United States Currency and Coin Outstanding and in Circulation Statement. The statement in 1983 ceased to be published as a separate, monthly release and instead was incorporated into the quarterly Treasury Bulletin as a special report.

Definition of Terms

The classification "Amounts outstanding and in circulation" includes all issues by the Bureau of the Mint which are purposely intended as a medium of exchange. Therefore, coins sold by the Bureau of the Mint at premium prices are excluded. However, uncirculated coin sets, sold by the Mint at face value plus a handling charge, are included.

The term "Federal Reserve notes" refers to issues by the U.S. Government to the public through the Federal Reserve banks and their member banks. These notes represent U.S. Government obligations. Currently, the item "Federal Reserve notes—amounts outstanding" consists of new series issues. The Federal Reserve note is the only class of currency currently issued.

"U.S. notes" are also known as legal tender notes and were issued in five different issues; namely, (a) First Issue—1862 ($5 to $1,000 notes), (b) Second Issue—1862 ($1 to $2 notes), (c) Third Issue—1863 ($5 to $1,000 notes), (d) Fourth Issue—1863 ($1 to $10,000 notes), and (e) Fifth Issue—1901 ($10 notes).

The column for "Currency no longer issued" consists of gold certificates (old and new series), silver certificates (old and new series), Federal Reserve notes (old and new series), national bank notes (old and new series), and Treasury notes (1890 series).

"Dollar coins" include standard silver coins and nonsilver coins.

"Fractional coins" include subsidiary coins in denominations of 50 cents, 25 cents, and 10 cents and minor coins (5 cents and 1 cent).

Reporting Sources

Data used in the preparation of the U.S. Currency and Coin Outstanding and in Circulation Statement is derived from monthly reports required from Treasury offices, various U.S. Mint offices, the Federal Reserve banks, and the Federal Reserve Board. Such reports convey information about the amount, class, and denomination of new issues of currency and/or coin, of destroyed and replaced currency, and of currency and coins withdrawn from circulation. Estimates of population from the Bureau of the Census are used in the calculation of money circulated per capita.

Information about the Superintendent of Documents Subscription Service

Current Subscribers

To know when to expect your renewal notice and keep a good thing coming . . . to keep subscription prices down, the Government Printing Office mails each subscriber only one renewal notice. You can learn when you will get your renewal notice by checking the number that follows ISSDUE on the top line of your label as shown in this example:

When this digit is 0, a renewal notice
..... / will be sent.

. TRBU SMITH212J ISSDUE000 R 1 ..
. JOHN SMITH ..
. 212 MAIN ST ..
. FORESTVILLE MD 20747 ..
.....

When that number reads ISSDUE000, you have received your last issue unless you renew. You should receive your renewal notice around the same time that you receive the issue with ISSDUE000 on the top line.

To be sure that your service continues without interruption, please return your renewal notice promptly. If your subscription service is discontinued, simply send your mailing label from any issue to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402-9372 with the proper remittance, and your service will be reinstated.

To change your address . . . please SEND YOUR MAILING LABEL, along with your new address, to the Superintendent of Documents, Attn: Chief, Mail List Branch, Mail Stop: SSOM, Washington, DC 20402-9373.

To inquire about your subscription service . . . please SEND YOUR MAILING LABEL, along with your correspondence, to the Superintendent of Documents, Attn: Chief, Mail List Branch, Mail Stop: SSOM, Washington, DC 20402-9375.
